

National Seminar
Role of Ayurveda & Yoga in Health Care Management
22nd to 23rd February, 2018

Summary

Two days National Seminar on “Role of Ayurveda & Yoga in Health Care Management” from 22nd to 23rd February, 2018 was organized by North Eastern Institute of Ayurveda & Homoeopathy (NEIAH), Mawdiangdiang, Shillong, Meghalaya; sponsored by NEC, Shillong. The Seminar get started with an Inaugural Function chaired by Prof. (Dr.) P K Goswami, Director NEIAH, with august presence of Chief Guest Vaidya Rajesh Kotecha, Secretary, Ministry of AYUSH, New Delhi; Guest of Honour Sri Ram Muivah, Secretary, NEC, Shillong; Guest of Honour Sh. P.N.Ranjit Kumar, Joint Secretary, Ministry of AYUSH, New Delhi and invited guest Shri Pravin Bakshi, IAS, Secretary, Health & F.W.Department, Govt. of Meghalaya, Shillong. On this occasion, Souvenir cum Abstract Book was released during Inaugural Function. In the long two days programme, Two (02) Seminar Hall were arranged to run parallel Scientific Sessions. More than 80 scientific papers were presented by the delegates arrived from different part of the country. Out of which 15 lectures were Key Note Speeches. There were 05 (five) scientific sessions structured with Chairperson, Co-chairperson, Rapporteur, Key Note Speakers, Guest lectures and oral paper presentation. One best paper presentation from each session was awarded. Most of the paper presented on the research and development of Ayurveda and Yoga in Health Care Management, highlighting tremendous scope of research in Management of different ailments by Ayurveda & Yoga; specially in NE India due to its rich source of medicinal plants and ethno-medicinal information on account of biodiversity. The Seminar was concluded with panel discussion cum valedictory function. The valedictory ceremony was chaired by Prof. (Dr.) P K Goswami, Director NEIAH, Chief Guest Prof. (Dr) B. Baishya, Government Ayurveda College, Guwahati, Assam, Guest of Honour Prof (Dr) S K Chakroborty, Government Ayurveda College, Guwahati, Assam and Dr. R Achal, Regional Cordinator-World Ayurveda Congress. Feedbacks received from the delegates and participants were acknowledged and hereby recommended for your kind consideration and necessary action.

1. Creating employment for the AYUSH graduates.
2. Infrastructure development for quality R&D (eg.DTL, Regional PVC)
3. Utilization and integration of Human Resources of different streams for R&D
4. Participation of Traditional healers in the mainstream of AYUSH system
5. Validation and Documentation of Traditional Knowledge.

6. Proper implementation of National AYUSH Mission in the field of medicinal plant cultivation, promotion and propagation.
7. Establishment of Drug Testing Laboratory at NEIAH.
8. Establishment of Peripheral Pharmacovigilance Centre at NEIAH.
9. Establishment of e-library and e-repositories for Plant resources of NE
10. Special research work under PG & Ph.D.